

H. R. 669.

FEBRUARY 19, 1833.

Read, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union to which the said bill is committed.

Mr. E. EVERETT, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, submitted the following amendments to the bill (H. R. No. 669) "Making appropriations for the support of the Civil and Diplomatic expenses of Government for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three."

1 To indemnify Captain Daniel Turner, of the United States'
2 navy, for the expense of conveying the Netherlands' minister,
3 and his suite, from New York to Curaçao, by order of the 4 Secretary of the Navy, in the year one thousand eight hundred
5 and twenty-eight, eleven hundred and eighty-two dollars se-
6 venty-eight cents.

7 To indemnify Captain George Washington Storer, of the
8 United States' navy, for the expenses of accommodating Com-
9 modore David Porter, Charge d' Affaires of the United States
10 at Constantinople, on board the United States' ship Boston; and 11 for the expenses of conveying George Porter, consul of the 12 United States at Tangiers, from Port Mahon to Tangiers; and 13 of conveying Lieutenant Ebenezer Ridgway, consul of the 14 United States at Tripoli, and his family, from Port Mahon to 15 Tripoli, in all five hundred dollars.
